Dear Harold,

Sorry for the long silence but I've been tied up.

In the wake of some nurse man, don't let the bastards get you down. The media reception of Frank's book was sadly quite predictable. You have relived an historical truth that America cannot face. Dick Gregory shared here written that you were "the true patriot of our time although crying out in a wilderness of rejection."

The Noyes book was killed. Braden does seem worthy of some investigation. Mafia figures could have been used on the operation will be a false response, a scale Cuban exiles may have played, also.

What's new?

Take care of yourself and get plenty of rest.

Sincerely,
